

EVAN N. MCNABB

Address: Available Upon Request

Phone Number: Available Upon Request; evan@mcnabbs.org

Education:

- Brigham Young University - Provo, UT: B.S. in Computer Science, August 2004
- RHCE (Red Hat Certified Engineer #803004182511286), RHCI (Certified Instructor), RHCX (Certified Examiner)

Skills:

- Operating Systems:
 - Linux: Red Hat Enterprise Linux / Fedora, SUSE Linux Enterprise Server / SUSE Linux, Debian, Gentoo
 - UNIX (multiple variants), Mac OS X, Windows 98/2000/XP
- Programming Languages:
 - Proficient with C, Perl, Bash Shell Scripting
 - Familiar with C++, Java, PHP, HTML
- Tools and Systems:
 - Proficient with Apache, iptables, NFS, Postfix, Software RAID / LVM, SSHD
 - Familiar with BIND, Kerberos, MySQL, NIS, OpenLDAP, Samba

Experience:

- Guru Labs—Bountiful, UT
Instructor: June 2004 - Present
 - Teach Linux system administration and security courses for Guru Labs, Red Hat, HP, and IBM
 - Administer RHCT and RHCE certification exams
 - Design and write course curriculum
- Brigham Young University, Computer Science Department—Provo, UT
System Administrator: May 2001 - June 2004
 - Maintained network of 180 Linux and 150 Windows 2000 workstations
 - Configured and managed department WWW, DNS, NFS, Samba, FTP, and LDAP servers
 - Developed scripts used to manage workstations and servers
- Argus Systems Group, Inc.—Champaign, IL
System Administrator: June 1995 - May 1998, July 2000 - August 2000
 - Managed network of Unix, Macintosh, and Windows NT workstations
 - Implemented corporate tape backup system
 - Assisted in creating company website

- University of Illinois—Urbana, IL
System Administrator / Webmaster: December 1994 - May 1995
 - Managed SunOS web/mail server
 - Maintained and wrote web pages for Agricultural Department and Weed Science Society of America

Achievements:

- Former president of the BYU Unix Users Group (2003 - 2004). Heavily involved with other Linux User Groups in the Salt Lake City area.
- Served as volunteer missionary in Mexico (June 1998 - June 2000); fluent in Spanish.